

TECHNICAL BULLETIN

Doc Nr : PDX2023-01
Date: 3/07/2023
Issued by: Technical Training & Support (TTS)

Subject	New gas tap
Action in Factory	New model in production on XP range.
Date or s/n of introduction	WK27 2023 or Serial 3272xxxxx
Action in Field	New and Old gas taps are not interchangeable due to certification matters.
Spare parts	Old tap remains in production for older appliances as spare part ; new tap in production for appliances manufactured after WK27-2023 and available as spare part. Spare part catalogues are updated and loaded into the web site.

This document has the informative purpose to raise awareness regarding a change in production:

starting from Wk 27 of 2023 (July) will be introduced ,on most of XP GAS COOKERS, a new model of gas tap.

The new tap has a more flexible adjustment stroke (compared to the older model) , with this model it will be easier to adjust the output burner flame.

Due to certification the new and old gas taps are NOT interchangeable. The “old” gas tap remains in production as spare part.
